THE LION OF VENICE KEEPS ROARING

In between films, awaiting the arrival of the latest Hollywood star in the ten days of the Venice Film Festival, the Lido offers its best side.

Il Leone ruggisce ancora

Fra un film e l'altro, aspettando l'arrivo dell'ultimo divo di Hollywood nei dieci giorni della Mostra del Cinema di Venezia, il Lido offre il suo lato migliore.

It was in 1932 that on the Seaview Terrace of the Hotel Excelsior the First Exhibition of Cinematographic Art started, as part of the 28th Venice Biennale. There was no competition and there were no awards, but an audience referendum would name the best director and the most enjoyable film. Two years later the screenings were moved to the Radiant Fountains terrace where the Excelsior's pool is now situated - one thousand people seated under the stars-

Era il 1932 e alla terrazza mare dell'Hotel Excelsior inizia la "Prima esposizione d'arte cinematografica" nell'ambito della 28. Biennale di Venezia, non c'è competizione ma un referendum fra il pubblico indicherà il miglior regista e il film più divertente. Due anni dopo la proiezione si sposterà nella terrazza "Fontane luminose", dove ora c'è la piscina dell'Excelsior: mille persone ospitate sotto le stelle, fra loro 300 giornalisti among them a 300-strong press corps from 19 different countries. The top stars of international cinema came to Venice Lido, one of the first being Marlene Dietrich. With that consecration of the fan worship that would always mark the Festival. 1938 saw the arrival of 519,00 tourists in Venice Lido. Those walking along the beach of the Hotel Des Bains could even say bello to the Shah of Persia as he sat in a cane chair with a cocktail in his hand. In 1949, after an interruption during the war, international cinema returned to the Lido Cinema building to stay, making it the focal point for international society events in the fifties and sixties when it welcomed the top names in world-class cinematography. There was to be no Festival from 1969 to 1979. Following the dispute in 1968, the awarding of prizes was abolished and the Festival was made non-competitive for that period. In 1972, the Venice International Film Festival was held in Venice's old town in contrast with the Festival held at Venice Lido.

There were career achievement awards only but this did not prevent the legendary John Ford from being awarded his Lion. And it was in this period that the intellectuals arrived. Fellini returned to pick up his career achievement award in 1985. Hollywood came to Venice with Goodfellas and Martin Scorsese was awarded the Silver Lion for the best film direction. 1993 saw the gilding of Robert De Niro's career, along with Steven Spielberg. The same award went to Vittorio Gassman in 1996 and Clint Eastwood in 2000, last year have been awarded the Italian actress Stefania Sandrelli and the Japanese cartoons director Hayao Miyazaki.

accreditati di 19 nazioni diverse. Scendono al Lido le più grandi stelle del cinema internazionale, una delle prime è Marlene Dietrich. Sarà la consacrazione del divismo che accompagnerà per sempre la mostra. Nel 1938 si registrano 519 mila turisti al Lido di Venezia.

Passeggiando sulla spiaggia del Des Bains c'era chi poteva salutare lo Scià di Persia seduto su una sedia in rattan con in mano un cocktail. Dal '49, dopo la pausa bellica, il cinema internazionale ritorna definitivamente al palazzo del Cinema del Lido diventando negli anni cinquanta e sessanta il centro delle occasioni mondane internazionali, ospitando i più grossi nomi della cinematografia mondiale. Dal '69 al '79 "la Mostra" non ci sarà. Nel '68, dopo la contestazione, si abolisce il conferimento dei premi. In questi anni si tengono edizioni non competitive della Mostra. Nel '72 nel centro storico di Venezia si tengono le "Giornate del cinema italiano" in antitesi con la Mostra che si tiene al Lido. Ci saranno solo premi alla carriera che non impediranno al mitico John Ford di ritirare il suo Leone. In quegli anni arrivano comunque gli intellettuali. Ritorna Fellini per il premio alla carriera nell'85.

Hollywood approda a Venezia con Goodfellas e Martin Scorsese ritira il Leone d'Argento per la miglior regia nel 1990. Nel '93 ci sarà l'oro alla carriera di Robert De Niro con Steven Spielberg. Stesso premio nel '96 a Vittorio Gassman e nel 2000 a Clint Eastwood, lo scorso anno invece è stato conferito all'attrice italiana Stefania Sandrelli e al regista d'animazione nipponico Hayao Miyazaki.

History and innovation

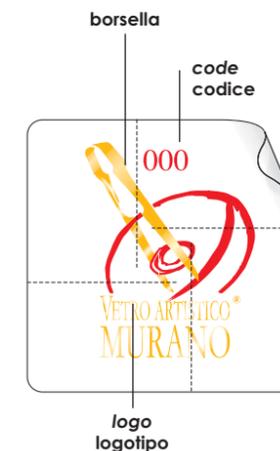

HEART of VENICE

Storia e innovazione

A new heart for the Murano glass. A pulsing heart for the safeguarding of the century-long tradition and culture of an ancient art. From now on, customers will be able to know what they are buying. "Vetro Artistico ® di Murano" (Murano Glass) is a guarantee trademark certifying the origin and the singleness of the artistic product created by Murano Master glass makers with traditional techniques handed down over the centuries. It is a guarantee against imitations, against mass production which does not match with this artistic world. At the same time, it is an information campaign, with the evocative title "Heart of Venice", fostered by this very trademark as a fundamental instrument for safeguarding customers, all the lovers of this extraordinary ancient tradition and the very work of glasshouses. The trademark label can be used and placed on any glass part of the product only by concessionaires of the "Vetro Artistico ® Murano" trademark, thus clearly certifying the origin. The "Vetro Artistico ® Murano" trademark was introduced and governed by the Veneto Region Law no.70 of 23rd December 1994 as a guarantee of an authentic product produced on the island of Murano. Always ask for products bearing that certification mark, so you can be sure you are buying an authentic Murano glass product. So remember to ask for and to choose items displaying that trademark, the official guarantee of the authenticity of the Murano Glass.

Un cuore nuovo per il vetro di Murano. Un cuore pulsante per difendere la tradizione e la cultura di un'arte antica. Da oggi i consumatori potranno sapere quel che comprano. "Vetro Artistico ® Murano" è un marchio di garanzia che permette a tutti di conoscere l'origine e l'unicità del prodotto artistico, realizzato da Maestri vetrai muranesi secondo tecniche tradizionali tramandate nei secoli. È una certificazione contro i falsi, contro le serialità che non appartengono a questo mondo. Ma anche una campagna di informazione, dal titolo evocativo "Cuore di Venezia" che questo marchio vuol promuovere come strumento indispensabile per i consumatori, gli amanti di questa straordinaria cultura millenaria, e le stesse vetrerie per la tutela del loro lavoro. Solo le aziende concessionarie del marchio "Vetro Artistico ® Murano" possono utilizzare e apporre il bollino su una qualsiasi parte in vetro dell'oggetto, certificandone in modo inequivocabile la provenienza. Il marchio "Vetro Artistico ® Murano" è stato istituito e disciplinato dalla Legge Regione Veneto n. 70 del 23 dicembre 1994, a garanzia di un prodotto sicuramente realizzato nell'isola.

Richiedi sempre al negoziante oggetti con il marchio di origine: solo così sarai certo di avere acquistato un vetro di Murano autentico. Ricordati di esigere e scegliere prodotti con il marchio, la garanzia ufficiale di autenticità del Vetro di Murano.

The trademark shows a typical work tool, the "borsella", in the act of creating a plate. A stamp which may be red or blue depending on the type of workmanship. It cannot be removed, it bears the identifying code of the manufacturing company.

Il marchio rappresenta un tipico strumento di lavoro, la "borsella", nell'atto di creare un piatto. Il bollino anticontraffazione, rosso o blu a seconda del tipo di lavorazione, è inamovibile e riporta il codice identificativo dell'azienda produttrice.

NEW OPENING

Located in Venice, in Salizada S.Samuele, close to Palazzo Grassi. Gianfranco Meggiato, young venetian sculptor, presents his own bronze art-works. The artist calls his work "introsculpture" from the way the viewer is drawn into its interior, rather than being limited to observing the outer surfaces. "A free and subversive spirit", that's the definition of the art-critic Vittorio Sgarbi. The ultimate challenge is the use of ancient materials and technologies (like the lost-wax casting of bronze), to indicate new ways and new emotions through abstract forms.

NUOVA APERTURA

A Venezia, in Salizada San Samuele, vicino a Palazzo Grassi. Gianfranco Meggiato, giovane scultore veneziano, presenta le sue opere in bronzo dorato. Il maestro definisce la sua come "introscultura", per il fatto che lo spettatore viene affirato a penetrarne con lo sguardo l'interiorità non limitandosi solamente ad osservarne le superfici esterne.

"Spirito libero e sovvertitore", così lo definisce il critico Vittorio Sgarbi. Sfida ultima è l'utilizzo dei materiali e delle tecnologie antiche (come la fusione in bronzo a cera persa) per indicare, attraverso forme astratte, nuove vie e nuove emozioni.

"I Terrestri" - Ida Barbarigo

An intense exhibition season will start off in September in the Musei Civici Veneziani, two the shows that certainly cannot be missed. From September 9 to December 3, the fascinating environment of the 'Sala del Maggior Consiglio' of the Palazzo Ducale will be the stage for 'Il paradiso di Tintoretto. Un concorso per Palazzo Ducale'. Some of the paintings that were presented in the competition for the creation of the largest canvas of the world, the 'Paradiso', that was banned by the Serenissima Republic in 1582, will be displayed for the first time after four centuries. That work was to substitute the previous fresco - created in 1365 c. by Guariento - that embellished the eastern wall of the 'Sala' that had been completely destructed during a large fire. The exhibition will feature the remains of the previous fresco and the canvas by the artist who had completed the fresco (normally displayed in the museum), as well as paintings by Paolo Veronese, Francesco Bassano, Jacopo Palma il Giovane, and a number of works by Tintoretto coming from, among others, the Louvre and Thyssen-Bornemisza of Madrid. From September 2 to November 19, the first floor hall of the Museo Fortuny will be hosting the interesting exhibition "I Terrestri" - the Terrestrials - of the living artist Ida Barbarigo. The spectator will be welcomed in a suggestive, intense and particularly welcoming way. The exhibition unfolds in an environment made of open and enclosed polygonal structures resembling the extraordinary home-studio of the Venetian artist. The recent series of the Terrestri is hosted here and it presents a bustling humanity, starting from their father Saturn, in its frantic endeavour to control the flowing of everyday life. Further works belonging to the artistic route of Ida Barbarigo since the 1960s can be viewed both in the inside and outside of those spaces.

Tra le molte mostre che prendono avvio nell'intenso settembre espositivo dei Musei Civici Veneziani, due sono gli appuntamenti da non perdere. Dal 9 settembre al 3 dicembre, nell'affascinante cornice della Sala del Maggior Consiglio di Palazzo Ducale, va in scena "Il Paradiso di Tintoretto. Un concorso per Palazzo Ducale". Per la prima volta dopo quattro secoli vengono esposti alcuni dei dipinti presentati alla gara bandita dalla Serenissima nel 1582 per la realizzazione della più grande tela del mondo: il Paradiso. E ciò dopo che il precedente affresco che ornava la parete orientale della Sala - eseguito nel 1365 ca. da Guariento - era andato nel 1577 quasi completamente distrutto da un grave incendio. La mostra presenta, oltre ai resti dell'affresco e alla tela dell'esecutore finale (normalmente esposta in museo), i dipinti di Paolo Veronese, Francesco Bassano, Jacopo Palma il Giovane, insieme ad alcuni lavori dello stesso Tintoretto provenienti, tra gli altri, dal Louvre e dal Thyssen-Bornemisza di Madrid. Dal 2 settembre al 19 novembre la sala al piano terra del Museo Fortuny ospita invece l'interessante mostra dell'artista vivente Ida Barbarigo "I Terrestri". In modo suggestivo, intenso e particolarmente accogliente, il visitatore viene condotto attraverso un originalissimo allestimento a strutture poligonali chiuse ed aperte al tempo stesso e ispirate allo straordinario studio-casa dell'artista veneziana. Qui trova posto la recente serie dei Terrestri, che, a partire dal loro padre Saturno, rappresenta l'intera umanità affaccendata e freneticamente impegnata nell'occuparsi dello scorrere delle proprie vicissitudini quotidiane. Dentro e fuori le strutture trovano spazio altri importanti esempi del percorso artistico della Barbarigo a partire dagli anni '60.

Apparently, living in on-a-human-scale, democratic and sustainable urban contexts has now become a primary prerequisite, an absolute necessity for men who live in modern cities. The challenges posed in the past decades by these large urban realities highlight the need for experts to rethink the "city" in the light of the continuous social, demographic, ecologic stimuli with which it has to keep pace. A decent life in an equally decent urban area – where human existence can evolve without hardships – is becoming a problem with no easy solution. For the first time in its history, the International Architecture Exhibition of the Biennale of Venice – that this year is headed by Richard Burdett – is trying to find a response to those pressing needs by investigating the issues linked to the interaction between city, architecture and inhabitants. The exhibition unfolds in the various exhibiting areas of the Padiglione Italia in the area of the 'Giardini della Biennale' with a display of projects by 13 international research institutions. There will also be the exhibitions of fifty participating countries, including Italy, that will be displayed in part at the 'Arsenale' and in the 'Giardini della Biennale'.

Sembra che vivere in contesti urbani a misura d'uomo, democratici e sostenibili, sia divenuta oggi una condizione primaria, una necessità assoluta per l'uomo che vive nelle città moderne. Le sfide che le grandi realtà urbane hanno posto durante il secolo scorso evidenziano l'esigenza da parte degli addetti ai lavori di ripensare la "città" alla luce delle continue sollecitazioni, di ordine sociale, demografico, ecologico, ma non solo, con le quali questa è chiamata a misurarsi. Una vita dignitosa all'interno di un'area urbana altrettanto dignitosa – dove possa svilupparsi senza "patemi" la vita umana – sta divenendo un problema di non facile soluzione. A questi importanti quesiti, approfondendo i temi legati all'interazione tra città, architettura e abitanti, tenta di rispondere, per la prima volta nella sua storia, la Mostra Internazionale di Architettura della Biennale di Venezia, diretta quest'anno da Richard Burdett. La mostra si dipana nelle sedi del Padiglione Italia ai Giardini, dove troveranno spazio i progetti di tredici istituti di ricerca internazionali. Le mostre delle cinquanta nazioni partecipanti, tra cui l'Italia, sono allestite all'Arsenale e ai Giardini della Biennale.

GIOVANNI CHIARAMONTE: COME UN ENIGMA_VENEZIA

"San Marco" stampa fotografica cm. 50x100 in 9 esemplari (particolare)

SEPTEMBER 06
OCTOBER 06 da non perdere
not to be missed

Giovanni Chiaramonte indicates the painting of Giorgione and Tintoretto as the source of his inspiration and he photographs Venice as a privileged subject of his work which acts as a peregrination into the enigma of the world. Through a selection of 133 images, the exhibition outlines a visual description, an intimate diary of a traveller who makes his entrance into this city, that is the door of the East, searching images of his destiny and the motivations underlying his civilization. The images display the monumental strength of the façades of churches and palaces, the harmony of the interiors where violins and pianos lie, the flowing of the crowd, the disquieting maze of hidden calli. Chiaramonte photographs, thus, reflect life as a contradiction and man as a mystery: an enigma that makes of Venice the symbol of travelling in the era of globalization. On the occasion of the show, the book 'Giovanni Chiaramonte Come un enigma_Venezia' by will be presented, published by the Bugno Art Gallery and Edizioni della Meridiana, Milan; texts by Francesco Zanot and Giovanni Chiaramonte.

Giovanni Chiaramonte indica nella pittura di Giorgione e Tintoretto l'origine della propria visione e fotografa Venezia quale soggetto privilegiato della propria opera che si pone come peregrinazione nell'enigma del mondo. In una selezione di 133 immagini la mostra traccia un racconto visivo, un diario intimo di un viaggiatore che muove verso questa città che è porta dell'Oriente, rintracciandovi le figure del proprio destino e le ragioni della propria civiltà. Le immagini mettono di fronte alla forza monumentale delle facciate delle chiese e dei palazzi, al bagliore della luce sui canali, all'armonia degli interni dove riposano violini e pianoforti, al flusso della folla, agli inquietanti labirinti delle calli nascoste. Le fotografie di Chiaramonte riflettono così la vita come contraddizione e l'uomo come mistero: un enigma che fa di Venezia la città simbolo del viaggio nell'epoca della globalizzazione. In occasione della mostra sarà presentato il volume Giovanni Chiaramonte - Come un enigma_Venezia edito dalla Bugno Art Gallery e Edizioni della Meridiana - Milano, testi di Francesco Zanot e Giovanni Chiaramonte.

THE CHURCH OF SAN STAE

Saint Stae? He's not had any days named after him. You won't have heard of any public holidays celebrated in his name anyway. And yet in Venice, he is one of the most famous saints. St Stae? "There, on the Grand Canal, that's the church". The reply your average Venetian is likely to give a tourist. In reality, St Stae (along with many of his peers) is emblematic of the familiarity with which the Venetians treated their saints, of their relationship with religion. The church standing on the Grand Canal, in the S. Croce quarter, is dedicated to St Eustachius, who the Venetians, in their dialect, have always called St Stae. The origins of a church dedicated to St Stae in Venice can be traced back to a grey area somewhere between the second half of the 10th century and the early 12th century. The old building, however, was completely demolished in the mid-sixteen hundreds, then rebuilt by Giovanni Grassi, an otherwise unknown architect.

 9am - 12pm, 3pm - 6pm

In the middle of the 17th century, Venice was struck by a terrible plague; in order to free the city, the Republic of Venice's Senate decided that a church should have been built, dedicated to the Virgin, asking her for Health (salute). Between eleven plans presented, it was chosen the one by Baldassarre Longhena and works started in 1631. He designed a temple having a central area on an octagonal plan, dominated by a huge dome with great arches.

To see: "Nozze di Caanan" by J. Tintoretto, "Pentecoste" by Tiziano, "La Madonna Bizantina" work from the 13th-century Greek-Byzantine school.

The building has a Greek cross pattern, with three naves and the roof in the shape of a cross vault.

PASSION AND INVESTMENT

Every prestigious house, apartment and palace is sold as if it was a work of art, and it is well known that in art only good connoisseurs make good bargains.

Passione e investimento

Ogni casa, ogni appartamento, ogni palazzo di prestigio è venduto come fosse una opera d'arte, e sull'arte, si sa, fa l'affare solo chi se ne intende.

It was an ancient tradition, almost a challenge. The ancient nobles' dwellings had to display the power of the family. Houses had to tell passers-by in the Canal Grande that beyond the façade marbles lived one of the most rich families of Venice. Today this could be defined as "enterprise communication" and sometimes it still works, which is the case of "Palazzo Grassi". The palace was bought by a non-Venetian entrepreneur for hosting his art collections thus making them public. Other people prefer less flamboyant dwellings although equally prestigious. Some palaces in Venice date back to 1200 and were used by tradesmen – hosted by the Serenissima Republic – as trade centres. Real jewels, many of which are still availa-

Era una antica tradizione, quasi una sfida. Le dimore dei nobili dovevano dimostrare la potenza di casata. Dovevano dire a chi passava in barca per il Canal Grande che lì, dietro i marmi di facciata, abitava una delle più ricche famiglie di Venezia. Oggi si chiamerebbe comunicazione d'impresa e in alcuni casi funziona ancora. È il caso di Palazzo Grassi, acquistato recentemente da un imprenditore non veneziano per ospitare le proprie raccolte d'arte e renderle così pubbliche. Altri preferiscono dimore meno vistose ma non meno prestigiose. Esistono palazzi a Venezia che risalgono al 1200, palazzi-fondaci utilizzati dai commercianti ospiti della Serenissima che li usavano come postazioni ble on the market. Precious and luscious art objects chosen for their singular beauty. For many years, Venice had stopped being centre of culture and world city. Ezra Pound, Stravinskij, De Chirico, Guggenheim and Hemingway were not seen any longer in the 'calles' of Venice. As if the lagoon fog had hidden the best 'side' of the city. Today everything seems to have changed. Venice, despite problems and eternal inertias, is regaining its role of catalyser of intelligence and cultures. Many of the protagonists of the international scene and of the world of culture are coming back to Venice and buying houses in the Lagoon. A large number of artists are allured by the Lido Film Festival. Attracted by the human dimension of this city, by its extreme safety – indeed, here organized crime is unknown, and burglaries, aggressions and robberies barely occur – by the simpleness of the passing of time, they start falling in love with Venice. Outstanding financial advisors from New York, from the City in London, from the Soviet economic world begin showing their interest in the prestigious palaces. And you can't blame them. It is not only for the economic value of the properties – considering that once the house has been bought it is already worth 10% more of its original value – but also for the historic one. You may risk to end up living where once slept Lady Diana or the Prince of England. Suffice it to mention an example: the house chosen by Elton John in the Giudecca, i.e. "La Gioconda" owes its name to the composer Ponchielli who mentioned him in the famous scene of the "Suicide" sang by Maria Callas.

commerciali. Veri gioielli, molti dei quali ancora disponibili sul mercato. Oggetti d'arte, preziosi e voluttuosi, scelti proprio per la loro singolare bellezza. Per molti anni Venezia non fu più centro di cultura e luogo di mondo. Gli Ezra Pound, gli Stravinskij, i De Chirico, le Guggenheim, gli Hemingway da tempo non si vedevano più fra le calli. Come se la nebbia di questa laguna avesse nascosto il volto migliore della città. Oggi sembra tutto diverso. Venezia, nonostante i problemi e le sue eterne inerzie, si sta riprendendo il ruolo di grande catalizzatore di intelligenze e culture. Molti protagonisti della scena internazionale e del mondo della cultura stanno facendo ritorno e comprano casa in Laguna. Molti gli artisti avvicinati dalla Mostra del Cinema del Lido. Attirati dalla dimensione umana di questa città, dalla sua estrema sicurezza (qui non esiste una malavita organizzata e i furti, le aggressioni, le rapine sono praticamente inesistenti), dalla semplicità dello scorrere del tempo, si innamorano di Venezia. Grandi consulenti finanziari di New York, della City di Londra, del mondo economico sovietico, cominciano a puntare gli occhi sui prestigiosi palazzi. E come dar loro torto. Lasciando perdere l'aspetto economico (sul quale basta sottolineare il fatto che nel momento stesso in cui si apre la porta della casa acquistata, questa vale un 10% in più) c'è da considerare il valore storico degli immobili. Si rischia di abitare dove dormì Lady Diana, o il principe d'Inghilterra. Solo per fare un esempio: la casa scelta da Elton John alla Giudecca, "La Gioconda", deve il suo nome al compositore Ponchielli che la citò nella famosa scena del "Suicidio" cantata da Maria Callas.

GIUDECCA Renovatio urbis

Like in all modern European cities, what once was periphery now is fashion, prestige and tranquillity.

They are considered by some, rightly, the docks of Venice. This part of the city represents the best that can be achieved in the recovery of industrial archaeology of the beginning of the century. A recovery – take for example the 'Mulino Stucky': former factory transformed into a hotel and private dwellings – that has been coupled with the work of renowned architects like Ignazio Gardella, Gino Valle, Carlo Aymonino, Aldo Rossi, Avaro Siza and Raphael Moneo. Thanks to the works carried out, the island in the island, that till not too long ago was called "the island of seals", hit by a continuous north wind, is reborn and has become the island of the Vips, the Notting Hill of the Lagoon. The island, however, has remained a tranquil place on a human scale. Quiet in winter and summer alike. The popular soul has been accompanied by other different souls of the cultural intelligentsia, of artists, literates and of upper sophisticated classes. This place is seldom reached by tourists. Once, figures like Gabriele D'Annunzio, Filippo Tommaso Martinetti, Luigi the Ninth and Francois Mitterand used to stroll along the 'fondamenta' of the troubled 'Canale della Giudecca'. Today actors can be seen passing their time in the sun, under the Cipriani arbour, free from bodyguards and fans.

Come nelle moderne città europee, quel che prima era periferia ora è moda, prestigio e tranquillità.

Qualcuno li ha considerati i docks di Venezia e a ragione. Nel senso che questa parte della città rappresenta quel che meglio si può fare nel recupero dell'archeologia industriale d'inizio secolo. Ma oltre al recupero (per tutti il Molino Stucky: da fabbrica a hotel e abitazioni private) sulla Giudecca è calata la mano dei grandi architetti, da Ignazio Gardella a Gino Valle, da Carlo Aymonino, ad Aldo Rossi, da Avaro Siza a Raphael Moneo. E grazie a questi interventi l'isola nell'isola, fino a poco tempo fa chiamata "l'isola delle foche", schiacciata da un vento di tramontana che non le dà tregua, rinasce e diventa l'isola dei Vip, una Notting Hill lagunare. L'isola è rimasta tranquilla, a misura d'uomo. Silenziosa d'inverno quanto in estate. Ad un'anima popolare e popolana, che ancora c'è, si sono aggiunte altre anime. Quelle dell'intelligenza culturale, degli artisti, dei letterati, delle classi alte e raffinate. Qui il turista arriva poco. Una volta, lungo le fondamenta sul tormentato Canale della Giudecca, passeggiavano Gabriele D'annunzio, Filippo Tommaso Martinetti, Luigi Nono, Francois Mitterand. Oggi si vedono attori che con calma trascorrono le loro giornate al sole sotto la pergola del Cipriani. Senza preoccuparsi di guardie del corpo e fastidiosi ammiratori.

CANOVA RESTAURANT - LUNA HOTEL BAGLIONI

Venice is famous around the world for the superb quality of its restaurants but when you ask a food connoisseur, the Canova Restaurant remains one of the city's top addresses. Located at the renowned 5 star deluxe Luna Hotel Baglioni, a few steps away from St. Mark's square, the award winning authentic Venetian Canova Restaurant invites you to experience its sophisticated cuisine in a friendly atmosphere with excellent service. The Canova Restaurant Chef Cosimo creates dishes that are local favourites and a special menu reminiscent of Venice and the region. Each meal includes heart-baked bread and rolls made fresh throughout the day. The menu offers many choices in all categories: from the fine venetian appetisers to all kinds of home-made pastas, to delicious sea-food and meat main courses. The strongest attractions are the dessert menu, which offers all fancy home-made confections, and the exquisite Italian wine list. Dining at the Canova Restaurant sets the mood for an unforgettable evening rich with pleasure and romance. Join us and experience our Chef's outstanding talent because no visit to Venice is complete without a visit to the Canova where you can enjoy a relaxing, leisurely lunch or a romantic dinner. A must amongst tourists and locals alike.

Venezia è famosa in tutto il mondo per l'ottima qualità dei suoi ristoranti. Ma se domandate un parere a un intenditore di buone tavole, non farà altro che citare il Ristorante Canova come uno dei migliori della città. Allestito all'interno del rinomato Hotel Luna Baglioni, a pochi passi da Piazza San Marco, l'elegante spazio vi accoglie in un ambiente di grande pregio e con un servizio impeccabile. Sarà lo chef Cosimo ad offrire agli ospiti la sua scelta, fatta di piatti tipici e un menu speciale che richiama le vecchie tradizioni venete e veneziane. Senza dimenticare il pane, che prepara ogni giorno. Ottimi gli antipasti alla veneziana, la pasta fatta in casa i piatti a base di pesce o carne, i dessert freschi preparati in cucina e una ben fornita cantina di vini italiani. Ma molte delle proposte del Canova hanno il pregio della raffinatezza mantenendo l'impronta della genuinità casereccia. Un luogo invitante, dunque, che giova dell'atmosfera romantica della città, ma anche della passione con la quale la direzione del ristorante avvolge gli ospiti.

Venetian Cuisine

The taste and flavour of Venetian cooking originated in the islands in remote times. These were seafood-based dishes as well as vegetables and wildfowl, whose flavours would later blend and intermix with ingredients and spices from far away lands. Indeed, as Venice's diplomacy turned to the East, Venetian cuisine could not remain unaffected by the Oriental influx. The holds of ships ploughing the Mediterranean Sea overflowed with spices that brought Venetians not only riches, but also new flavours. But Venetians, traders and mariners, also understood that the golden yellow grain that arrived from beyond the ocean around the mid-1500s was perfect for making polenta, replacing the chickpeas, millet or buckwheat used until then. They immediately adopted it and made its cultivation widespread. Despite the fact that the populace called it "turco" (Turkish), meaning 'foreign', the grain that was henceforth called "granturco" (Turkish grain) became the staple food of the entire Veneto region. Turkeys were not overlooked, nor were beans, an essential element in the famous "pasta e fasioi". Yet the main feature of Venetian cuisine remains faithful to its remote origin, when fishing, hunting and horticulture supplied food products and ingredients. The ancient broeto and mollusc soups are proof of this, as is the richness and variety of the seafood dishes, from roasts to grills, tasty fish-fry and stews (cuttlefish stew) up to the palatable "saor". This is a sauce, a marinade made of fried onions, vinegar and spices mixed with pine nuts and raisins, in which sardines or sole are steeped to enrich their savour ("saor", in other words).

Il sapore e il gusto della cucina veneziana nascono nelle isole, in tempo remoto. Piatti a base di pesce ma anche ortaggi e prodotti dell'uccellazione i cui sapori si sposano e confondono, più tardi, con gli ingredienti e gli aromi di prodotti che vengono da lontano. Come infatti la diplomazia della Serenissima volgeva a Levante così la cucina veneziana non poteva rimanere estranea agli influssi orientali. Le stive delle cocche che solcavano il Mediterraneo traboccavano di aromi e droghe che portavano ai veneziani non solo ricchezza ma anche gusti nuovi. Ma i Veneziani, gente di mare e di commerci, capirono anche che quel cereale giallo come l'oro venuto da oltre oceano verso la metà del Cinquecento era ideale per far polenta al posto dei ceci, del miglio o del grano saraceno usati fino allora. Subito l'adottarono e ne diffusero la coltivazione. Per quanto il popolino lo chiamasse "turco", cioè straniero, quel grano che da allora fu detto appunto granturco, divenne l'alimento base di tutto il Veneto. Né si lasciarono sfuggire il tacchino e, soprattutto, i fagioli cucinati nella famosa "pasta e fasioi". Ma la caratteristica principale resta fedele alla lontana origine, quando pesca, caccia e orticoltura offrivano prodotti e ingredienti. Il brodetto antico e le zuppe di molluschi ne sono una testimonianza, come la ricchezza e la varietà dei piatti di pesce arrosto, sulla graticola, in fritti saporosi, in umido (umido di seppie) fino all'esaltante "saor" che è una salsa, una marinata a base di cipolle fritte, aceto, spezie, con pinoli e uvetta, con la quale si mettono a insaporire (da "saor" appunto), pesci come le sarde o le sogliole.

BORSETTI & FABRE - IL MANTEGNA'S CHRIST AND MORE. Until October 1

2006 sees the centenary of the death of Andrea Mantegna, one of the most outstanding European artists who was born in 1431 on the Island of Carturo (today Mantegna Island, in the Municipality of Piazzola sul Brenta). A scientific committee was set up in this municipality of Padova for celebrating in the best of ways that occasion and thus enhancing the spectacular area of Villa Contarini. The programme includes exhibitions – the most representative part of the programme –, concerts and photographic contests. Among these initiatives, the photographic show by Borsetti & Fabre (Carlo Fabre e Alessandra Borsetti Venier) certainly deserves being mentioned. It guides viewers "into" the pictorial space of the "Dead Christ", masterpiece by Mantegna, thus creating an identical theatrical context enabling the "involved" observer to browse in the theatrical space, to move around to look, hence, to participate in the event from different angles.

Il 2006 è l'anno del quinto centenario della morte di Andrea Mantegna, tra i massimi artisti europei, nato nel 1431 a Isola di Carturo (ora Isola Mantegna, Comune di Piazzola sul Brenta). In questo comune padovano si è costituito un comitato scientifico per celebrare al meglio l'occasione, valorizzando il grandioso spazio scenografico di Villa Contarini. Dalle mostre, parte più rappresentativa del programma, ai concerti e concorsi grafico-pittorici. Fra queste iniziative è da rilevare la mostra fotografica di Borsetti & Fabre (Carlo Fabre e Alessandra Borsetti Venier) che ci guidano "dentro" lo spazio pittorico del "Cristo morto", capolavoro del Mantegna, realizzando una situazione teatrale identica consentendo all'osservatore "coinvolto" di curiosare nello spazio scenico, di spostarsi per guardare e quindi partecipare all'evento da angolature diverse".

MICHELANGELO: DISEGNI DI ARCHITETTURA

Vicenza, Museo Palladio. Info: www.cisapalladio.org. From September 17 to December 10.

A collection of the most beautiful architecture drawings of all time sketched by a master artist, Michelangelo, and that define his design strategies as well as the complexity of those procedures. The exhibition illustrates the various types of projects, like the authentic model of the façade of the 'San Lorenzo church' in Florence, the famous drawing of 'Porta Pia' in Rome and the extraordinary fortification studies. The strength of the exhibition is the drawing of the triumphal arch, marked with number 630 in Charles de Tolnay's collection of Michelangelo's works.

Una raccolta dei più bei disegni di architettura di ogni tempo, tracciati da un autore di eccellenza, Michelangelo, che attraverso essi ci racconta le proprie strategie di progettazione e la complessità di tali procedure. L'esposizione renderà ragione delle tipologie e delle finalità dei diversi disegni, dal vero e proprio modello per la facciata di San Lorenzo, al famoso disegno per Porta Pia, agli straordinari studi di fortificazioni. Fulcro dell'esposizione è il disegno di un arco trionfale, identificato nel Corpus dei disegni di Michelangelo di Charles de Tolnay (con il n. 630).

BELLISSIMA. DIVE, DIVINE E DIVETTE A VENEZIA

Mestre, Centro Culturale Candiani. Info ph. +39.041.2386126. Until October 15.

Divine stars and starlets. In the golden years of the Venice Film Festival, one would have done anything to gain a moment of celebrity! The 'female' journey through the Venice of the cinematographic pomp of Bellissima - the exhibition of photographs from Graziano Arici's Archive - unfolds in a fable-like way, as if it were a rhyme made of images. Especially in the fifties and sixties, the city transformed itself in a huge film set immortalised in thousands of images that are today, fortunately, treasured in the Venetian archives and that are have the power to recall, better than with words, the flavour and fascination of an era that was both hardily sensual and irresistibly naive, like the bodies and faces of these marvellous ladies.

Dive, divine, divette... Cosa non si faceva per un pizzico di notorietà, alla Mostra di Venezia, negli anni d'oro del festival! Si snoda favolisticamente, come fosse una filastrocca per immagini, il viaggio al femminile nella Venezia dei fasti cinematografici di Bellissima, la mostra di fotografie dall'Archivio di Graziano Arici. Specialmente negli anni Cinquanta e Sessanta era l'intera città a diventare un gigantesco set cinematografico, immortalato nelle migliaia di immagini ora fortunatamente conservate negli archivi veneziani e destinate, meglio di tante parole, a ricostruire il sapore e il fascino di un'epoca tanto audacemente sensuale quanto irresistibilmente ingenua, come i corpi e i volti di queste bellissime.

Chi Siamo

RasBank è la banca multicanale raggiungibile sempre e ovunque. Tramite internet, sms e palmare, i clienti possono comunicare e fare operazioni 24 ore su 24, 7 giorni su 7. E per i meno tecnologici, a disposizione ci sono le persone agli sportelli e al call center. RasBank è nata da RAS, la compagnia di assicurazione con oltre 160 anni di esperienza, che dal 1984 fa parte di Allianz, la terza realtà assicurativa-finanziaria del mondo.

Cosa facciamo

Accanto ai servizi bancari, offriamo la più ampia gamma di prodotti, dalla gestione efficace della liquidità alla pianificazione finanziaria vera e propria. La nostra forza sono i promotori finanziari, una rete di oltre 3.000 esperti in grado di interpretare al meglio le esigenze dei clienti.

... e perché

Perché crediamo in una banca che è al servizio del cliente e non viceversa: una banca capace di personalizzare al massimo il servizio e, soprattutto, di essere comoda, pratica e accessibile.
